SOLVE THE MYSTERY OF STICKY PINES!

DRAW BIGWOOF

Without a picture of Bigwoof; people don't believe that it exists!

hunch-backed stringy, tangled hair that hangs wetly over its pot-bellied body enormous blunt-faced pointy snaggled teeth like those of an angler fish wide-set black eyes long, clawless toes

SOLVE THE MYSTERY OF STICKY PINES!

Mysterious things are happening in the small town of Sticky Pines.

Reported sightings of a monster and unexplained disappearances are just the beginning.

Can you uncover the mystery and show the world the truth?

READ BETWEEN THE LINES

A secret message is hidden in this newspaper article from The Sticky Times.

Underline the first word of every sentence to find the clue.

SECOND DISAPPEARANCE IN STICKY PINES

Do you have any information that could help? Not just one, but two people have gone missing from the town of Sticky Pines. Trust me, this has never happened in a small town like this before. The beloved candy-store owner, Mandy Millepoids, has been reported missing; last seen birdwatching in Molasses Grove on September 1st. Factory worker, Alastair Chelon, was the first to be reported missing on August 17th. Owner of The Sticky Times is working with the authorities to help them in their search. He urges anyone who has information that could help to come forward. Is there something you can remember about these dates that seems strange? Hiding in our houses won't solve these mysteries. Something must be done to bring these people home.
