

Dear parents and carers,

We are very excited about the brilliant opportunities that we have planned for the children over the next two weeks for World Book Day, including a visiting theatre company, an illustrator and a book fair! As part of the celebrations, we are running a whole school competition to be completed at home called 'Book in a Box'. The children must first choose a favourite book that they love. Next, print out the attached box and get your child to decorate it with words and pictures connected with that book. Inside, they must then collect, make or draw small items that represent that book! It's that simple! There will be certificates for all children who take part in the competition, with prizes for the best boxes! The deadline for all boxes to be handed in is next Wednesday 12th March. Certificates and prizes will be given out that Friday 14th March. If you are unable to print the box, you could make your own, or ask in school as we have copies of the box.

Please don't forget to join us for a Scholastic Book Fair beginning on Tuesday 18th March – not only can your child choose a brilliant book, but the more money you spend means more free books for our school!

We love reading at Hambridge School, and we very much hope you will help us encourage a love for reading for all of our children by joining in!

Kind regards,

Rebecca Heath-Coleman
