Reference: Comic Relief

Dear Parents and Carers,

Friday 21st March is Comic Relief Red Nose Day and we at Hambridge Primary School will be joining with the fun as we attempt to raise money for those children who require help.

Our pupils will be reminded during the day about why we are raising money for those who need it most, what a great job this charity does and why being a part of it means that all our families will be helping this excellent cause.

In return for a donation, we are inviting you to send your child dressed in non-school uniform. As it is the 40th anniversary of Comic Relief, the School Council have organised activities based on the number 40 which they will be leading in the afternoon.

A JustGiving page has been set up for your donations, please see the link below. We are unable to accept cash.
