Dear Parents/Carers

This half term, Bramley are studying The Romans. To assist with their learning, I have organised a Roman Day, where the children will take part in Roman related art (shield making), cooking and maths. The children are invited to dress up as Romans if they would like to.

Roman day will be ALL day on Monday 25th November. Lunch and break times will be as normal at school.

Please let me know if you do not want your child to take part in this day.

Please note - dressing up is optional, and up to you and your child. I have attached some photo ideas of costumes below. Please ensure no sharp weapons are bought in alongside the costumes.

Thank you for your continued support.

Miss Reygate
